

CCMC Accepts MNBC CEO Malonie Langthorne's Public Email Invitation to Meet

The Coalition of Concerned Métis Citizens (CCMC) formerly accepts your public email invitation sent May 12th, 2010 to meet with you at your earliest possible convenience in your office. Your email was circulated on Thursday, May 13th at 11:36 Am and read:

Good afternoon Mr.Belcourt

I thought I would take a moment to respond to let you know that not unlike many other rumours circulating via email this information is completely false. I encourage you or others to contact me (604) 880-0478 if you require futher clarification.

Thank you

*Malonie Langthorne
Chief Executive Officer
Metis Nation British Columbia*

CCMC will provide you an opportunity for you to present the Métis School business plan and discuss CCMC's defined 18 issues. CCMC will bring a few representatives that will include, but not limited to, professionals such as accountants, administrative experts, etc.

Please confirm the date and time you are available to meet as soon as possible to support productive next steps.

Please respond acknowledging receipt of this email and of course please feel free to contact me by cell phone (778-863-6645).

Thank you

Daryl Piper
Spokesperson
CCMC

