

Gordy Racette Director Nova Métis Heritage Association

Gordy Racette has two world titles and many continental and national championships in four different sports and has held 1st to 3rd degree black belts in four different styles. He acted as team director for the Canadian Ju-Jitsu Team at the 2006 World Ju-Jitsu Championships and continuing to support the community, he currently serves as Boxing Commissioner for Richmond City in British Columbia. He volunteers between approx 100 hours a year at an elementary school and various charities and associations and is a director of the Nova Metis Heritage Association.

His diverse background includes the hospitality industry, logger, saw mill worker, iron worker to serving as a managing executive with a database of over 25,000 clients. He has instructed at the Vancouver Police Academy teaching the force continuum as well as law enforcement agencies in four countries.

His activities include chess, ocean kayaking, scuba diving, martial arts and currently he is working on a private pilot license. He is a nationally certified coach and he is qualified to operate any wheeled vehicle on the highways. He is also a certified facilitator, college instructor, entrepreneur, single parent and friend to count on.

He has a Masters of Science in Communication, Bachelor of Leadership & Public Safety, Provincial Instructors Diploma, Adult Education Diploma and many other credentials and experiences.

Office Address

Nova Métis Heritage Association

10586 King George Blvd

Surrey BC V3T 2X3

Phone: (604) 634-0119

